

Reaching this means you have cleared the first stage.
Very good. Very good indeed.

*You still have a long way to go. Tread with caution. Or don't.
The key to the next stage lies below.*

Beneath the surface, whispers dwell,
In words you see, but cannot tell.
A secret waits in shadowed light,
Where fonts may shift from dark to bright.

Search not with eyes alone, my friend,
For tools unseen will guide your end.
Through hidden paths, the answers show,
Within this tome, the key will glow.

In silent lines, a truth delayed,
Its trace is faint but won't evade.
Though it seems invisible, look near,
For colors shift and secrets clear.

Encoded whispers softly hum,
In UTF-8, the answers come.
Seek the strings that twist and weave,
Decode the lines, and you shall believe.

*Read not just what you think you see,
But dig through what lies beneath the key.*
